

"We are all born with the amazing potential, to be GREAT!"

BROCKNE JONES

"Putting In Work" is Brock's signature rallying cry that mobilizes youth and young adults to achieve greatness as they pursue their passions and use their unique gifts for positive change. For over 10 years, Brock has shared similar calls to action with diverse audiences across the country and around the world. As a versatile speaker he has the special ability to infuse his own hip-hop and acoustic music into his keynotes which creatively echo the practical solutions he provides in a dynamic way. This uniquely powerful element puts him in a class of his own, generating excitement and synergy in rooms, captivating hearts and minds long after he leaves the venue.

Brockne "Brock" Jones is a highly sought after speaker, artist (Asaint), and certified life coach. He draws the inspiration to motivate and equip others from his own personal life transformation and his over 20 years combined experience in corporate leadership, outreach, and mentorship. In 2023, he was recognized as one of forty top business and community leaders in Arlington, TX for his efforts in breaking barriers and building bridges to serve under resourced communities.

The mission is to empower youth and young adults with the life skills and encouragement they can use to overcome obstacles and insecurities that social media, peer pressure, and challenging environments bombard them with. Brock doesn't just deliver dynamic messages; he delivers results with practical applications and evidence-based mentorship resources that will contribute to the overall wellness and personal development of your future leaders. Partner with Brock to shift your campus and organization's culture!

What Educators & Community Leaders are Saying

Mr. Jones gave the students an interactive, upbeat speech about determination and they were so excited after he spoke! His music got the students pumped up and kept them engaged. Both the students and teachers were moved and talked about his speech for a while afterward!

Andrea Rodgers
Newman International Academy

Brock made everyone from different backgrounds feel included at our Student Government Regional Leadership Event. His music mixed with his inspiring keynote presentation gave our students and advisors a spark that was still lit after we left the event.

Kaymon Farmer
Northeast Texas Community College

The experience of hearing Brock speak is truly unmatched – from his stage [presence] to the way he leads. His energy is flowing and alive. Not only is the foundation of his purpose felt through his messages, but you also become a part of the speech where you can't help but to engage in the feelings.

Jerome Colbert,
Vision of Alignment
